Discussion items:

- www.aiaonline.org is the site for coaches to go to for all administrative information, tournament guides, pass list, verification forms, etc.
- www.aia365.com is the site for parents, kids, coaches to go to for the official swimming performance lists from state qualifying meets.
- Once state qualifying meets begin, MaxPreps will begin producing performance lists of athletes that meet at least provisional standards at state qualifying meets. These lists will be found on the swim & dive page of aia365.com.
- The committee discussed the potential proposal from the Competitive Equity Committee regarding private schools. The Swimming Advisory Committee with a motion from David Smithers and a second from Janet Oitzman recommends to the AIA Executive Board that in the sport of swimming, because of the limited number of schools that compete in swimming, that teams are placed into divisions based on enrollment and that private schools are not moved up one division.

- 2012 Swim & Dive Qualifying Standards are now online on the coaches swim & dive page of www.aiaonline.org
- Mr. Hines reviewed NFHS rule changes or points of interest for the 2012-13 season. These rule changes can be found on the coaches page.
- The State Dive Qualifiers will be as follows:
Division I October 19, 2012 (Friday) @ Phoenix Country Day (Boys am/Girls pm)
Division II October 20, 2012 (Saturday) @ Phoenix Country Day (Boys am/Girls pm)
(The top 32 qualifiers will advance to the state meet)
