Aftermarket Football Helmet Sensory Devices

ATTENTION Administrators and Football Coaches:

After further consideration and discussion the AIA Executive Board determined that any aftermarket helmet sensor devices will not be prohibited from use as per the News Release of 4 September 2013 and will not be considered a violation of NFHS Football Rule 1.5.1. AIA member schools will have the opportunity to determine the value and efficacy of such devices (e.g. Shockbox) and their use in furthering a healthy and safe environment for those participating in football.

For further information please contact Kevin Merrill at Southwest Sports Technologies.

Anyone Can Save A Life - Emergency Action Plan

ATTENTION Administrators

An AIA member school must have an Emergency Action Plan in place in order to host a post season tournament. It takes only a few minutes to complete the online Anyone Can Save A Life Emergency Action Plan.

Once completed, you will receive a copy of your EAP along with the AIA office via email. A list of member schools that have completed the EAP can be found on the AIA Academy website.

- If school wishes to zero the balance at fiscal yearend - request must be made via email to Denise Doser - ddoser@aiaonline.org.
- All RefPay requests must come through the AIA; Schools are not to contact RefPay directly.

AIA Racial Sensitivity Summit

ATTENTION Administrators and Coaches

The AIA hosted the second Racial Sensitivity Summit on March 19, 2014 at the Twin Arrows Navajo Casino Resort. This was a follow-up to the summit held on January 13, 2014. Although the number of participants was fewer than the number who attended in January, the discussion continued to be compassionate, informative and professional.

AIA Spiritline Tryouts Update

ATTENTION Administrators and Spiritline Coaches

The AIA Legislative Council passed unanimously the Eligibility Rule proposal which affects Spiritline practices and Spring tryouts for incoming eighth graders. The Legislative Council also unanimously passed this proposal as Emergency Legislation effective March 7, 2014.

Legislative Council Meeting Minutes, March 7, 2014

So, as of March 7, 2014, incoming eighth graders can only practice and tryout during the Spiritline Season of Activity (First week of Football practice through the last day of school). The AIA does not control any activities that happen during the Summer time.

Please email any questions to info@aiaonline.org
