NEWS RELEASE

DOUG WILSON NEXT AIA EXECUTIVE BOARD PRESIDENT

PHOENIX, AZ (April 24, 2014) – At the Arizona Interscholastic Association (AIA) board meeting on Monday, April 21, the AIA Executive Board selected Doug Wilson as the next AIA Executive Board President for the 2014-2015 school year. Doug is the Marana Unified School District Superintendent and the Arizona School Administrators representative to the AIA Executive Board.

Mike DeLaO, Safford Unified District Governing Board Member and the Arizona School Boards Association representative to the AIA Executive Board, was selected as the next Vice President.

About the Arizona Interscholastic Association:

The AIA, is voluntary association of public and private Arizona high schools. Since 1913, the organization has created and sustained interscholastic activities that encourage maximum student participation by providing AIA member schools with an even playing field to ensure fair and equitable competition. The AIA believes that providing interscholastic activities for Arizona high school students creates personal development opportunities with a balanced focus on academics and extracurricular activities. Through its 272 member schools, the AIA reaches more than 95,000 participants in high school activity programs. The organization hosts 4,000 championship contests and maintains officiating for more than 45,000 regular season games. For more information, visit www.aiaonline.org and www.aia365.com.
