2017 AIA State Badminton Tournament Guide

2017 AIA State Individual Format

- Each participating school's head coach is allowed to enter one singles player for the AIA State Individual Badminton Tournament.
- Each participating school's head coach is allowed to enter one doubles team for the AIA State Individual Badminton Tournament.
- The AIA State Individual Tournament is a varsity competition tournament representing the best singles and doubles teams from each member school (only those schools who participated in regular season varsity Badminton matches).
- The entries that a coach submits are expected to compete until they are eliminated through tournament play. A failure of a singles player or doubles team to compete as scheduled, except in an emergency or injury situation, may be considered a school violation of AIA bylaw; article 11.4.2.
- Member schools are not required to enter players in the tournament.
- Each singles/doubles tournament bracket will be a 32 slot bracket (D I may have pigtail matches).
- Each singles/doubles tournament bracket will have eight (8) seeded slots.
- Bracketing will be single elimination.

Bracket Bys & Open Slots:

- The number of additional open slots on each bracket will be determined by the number of teams participating in regular season badminton combined with the final entries on the bracket.
- The head coaches from the top 16 power rated teams, on the day of the seeding meeting, may select an additional singles player or doubles team, based upon open slots on the bracket, beginning with the #1 - #2 - #3- #4....seeded teams.

2017 AIA State Individual Tournament Entry Process:

The AIA State Individual Badminton Tournament entries are processed through the school login page under Rosters.

Entry Deadline: 12:00 pm Monday, October 16, 2017

Entry process: From your athletic director (AD), obtain a password for your sport to get on the school login page (Roster) under School login on www.aiaonline.org . Once logged in, select rosters, begin listing your Badminton roster (list all team members, this should be done by the first match). No later than 12:00 pm on Monday October 16, 2017, from the roster page you must select your State entries of one singles player and one doubles team.

Substitutions:

- No substitutions will be allowed in the singles tournament. The player entered by the coach for the State Tournament will be expected to play until the tournament is completed.
- A substitution can be made for a member of a doubles team that becomes ill or is injured when reporting at the site on the first day of the individual tournament.
- Failure of a singles player or doubles team to compete as scheduled, except in an emergency or injury situation may, be considered a school violation of AIA bylaw; article 11.4.2.

2017 AIA State Individual Tournament Seeding Criteria:

The games committee and the Varsity head coaches will seed eight (8) slots for each singles and doubles tournament brackets based on the AIA Badminton Sport Advisory recommended approved criteria. The following bulleted criteria will be evaluated for seeds to be determined by the coaches.

- Head to Head competition
- AIA Season Record including tournaments
- Previous State Tournament Results
- Coaches vote determines the final seeding
- If any of the Top eight (8) seeds are from the same school, they will be seeded on opposite sides of the bracket.
- The draw becomes the draw for non-seeded players. No individuals or doubles teams will be moved once the draw is produced.

COACHES SEEDING MEETING FOR INDIVIDUAL STATE TOURNAMENT:

Arizona Interscholastic Association office

7007 North 18th Street Phoenix, AZ 85202 (NW corner of State Route 51 & Glendale Ave)

Wednesday, October 18, 2017

Division II (6:00 pm)

Division I (7:00 pm)

RULES

Rules shall be those of the current edition of the “Official Rules for Badminton” published by the US Badminton Association, the AIA Constitution and Bylaws and these tournament instructions.

Scoring...using the traditional scoring method where by only the serving side scores points, best 2 of 3 games, each game to 11 points for singles and to 15 points for doubles, with setting options. For singles the setting option occurs at 10-all to play to 13 points (set to 13) or no set to 11 points. For doubles the setting options occurs at 14-all to play to 17 points (set to 17) or no set to 15 points. Whichever side first reaches 10 points for singles to 14 points for doubles has the option to set or not to set.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

- Matches will be numbered without specific starting times. Play will be continuous. As soon as one match is finished, the next match will start.
- Players will be defaulted if they are not ready to play 15 minutes after the match is announced. A 20 minute recovery period will be allowed.
- No one will be allowed on the floor except players and designated officials. All others must be in the bleachers, seating areas or rest areas
- Players have 90 seconds between first and second game, and in that allotted time, coaches can go to their player's court. However, the 90 seconds does not start once the coach gets to the floor; it is 90seconds only!
- Warm-up time will be limited to 10 minutes for the first match played; then five minutes for each match thereafter.
- It will be each player's responsibility to note match numbers called and default times allowed.
- During all matches, players are to remain on the court. If an emergency arises, players are to go to the back of the court and raise their racket for assistance.
- For split sets, there will be a five minute time allotment. Players may leave the court. Coaches and players may converse during the five minute time-out, but not during the match.
- The 1998/99 rule changes on the (1) setting option; and (2) Coaching during break will be in effect.
- All participants are to report their scores promptly after each match to the head table.
- For split sets, the players will report to the scorer's table to record the time. Precisely five minutes later, the scorer will call the contestants back to the court. Coaches - remind your players to report to the scorer so he/she can note the time.

Practice on Site. A practice or competition on the site of the Post-Season Championship Tournament, except for a regularly scheduled contest, is not permitted for seven calendar days prior to the State Championship, except in the case of the host school (See AIA Constitution and Bylaws, Section 19.9.3, page 72.).

Determination: The host school may practice at the site only if that is their regular practice site.

MEDIA CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credential Policy that needs to be followed to protect the proprietary rights of the Association and to protect the student-athletes and coaches at region and state tournament events. The following link (http://aiaonline.org/news/press_center.php) is to the AIA Media Center which houses the AIA Media Credential Form and the AIA Approved Media List (those that have requested and been granted AIA media credentials). Please download the AIA Media Credential Form and should a media member need access that is not on the media list, they will need to sign off on the form. Please print out several of the Media Credential Forms so each media outlet fills out its own form. Should the media member refuse to sign off on the form, they will not be granted access to the region or state tournament event you're hosting.

Please download the AIA Approved Media List (which is constantly being updated) so that those members of the media that are already approved may be granted access. Please note that some members of the media might show up with Freelance Credentials. These have no pictures on them, but do allow for access to the event per the designated media outlet on the AIA Media Credential.
