Student Leadership Advisory Committee - SLAC

Students representing all six of the AIA Conferences met on March 9th, April 2th and April 20th to create the AIA Student Leadership Advisory Committee - SLAC. At those meeting the students discussed the focus of the group and identified their guiding principles or core values as:

- Embracing and supporting the community our students participate in, one activity at a time.
- Empowering our students to develop as leaders and advocate for their communities.
- Establishing an inclusive and encouraging atmosphere for all members involved.

There are currently 26 members of the committee, 13 male and 13 female. The students represent almost all interscholastic sports offered by AIA and have a balance of representation for rural and metro schools as well as private and public schools.

The goals set by the group for the 2018 - 2019 school year include improving sportsmanship statewide, all levels, all groups; helping schools to establish a positive school culture through recognition of all sports and establishing healthy rivalries.

Planning for a state-wide Student Leadership Conference will start this summer when five members of SLAC attend the annual NFHS Student Leadership Summit in Indianapolis July 23 - 25. These students will share information they receive with the entire SLAC group to continue moving forward with the Arizona Conference.

The next meeting for SLAC is on Wednesday, August 1st 10:00 a.m. at the AIA Offices. The students decided to meet again in September, then bimonthly for the remainder of the year.

Reports of suspected child abuse and neglect are often made by educational professionals. As school winds down and kids are out for the summer, we all must be the eyes and ears for children in our communities. Missing practices, unexplained illness, loss of interest, withdrawal, or performing below abilities are all red flags for potential child abuse. If you suspect a child may be experiencing anything such as neglect, abuse or bullying call the Childhelp National Child Abuse Hotline.
