Ethics Committee Decision

We rule:

AGAINST PROTEST

IN FAVOR OF PROTEST

Explanation

Ethics Committee:

Any decision in favor of protest must use the following solutions in order of preference (check all that apply).

- Competitor/Coach immediately correct infraction(s).
- Ranks/ decision lowered to last and/or loss.
- Disqualification of competitor or coach.
- Repeat of same/similar infraction(s) resulting in immediate disqualification of competitor and coach. Verification was provided.

We have been notified of the Ethics Committee Decision

_____ Coach (must initial)

_____ Competitor (must initial)

_____ Protester (must initial)

*All Ethic Committee decisions are final.

*The respective conference representative will officially file all protests.

*If protest for the same/similar infraction is made again, competitor/coach are disqualified, regardless of tournament or season.

* No coach, competitor, or protester may protest an ethic committee decision. If a coach, competitor, or protester is in disagreement with ethic committee decision, they may formally write their complaint and present it personally or through their AIA Conference representative for discussion and resolution at the next AIA Advisory Committee meeting.
