Welcome to the State Championships

On behalf of the Arizona Interscholastic Association, I would like to welcome all the participants, coaches, family and friends to our state championships. It is our pleasure to create an event that fans will enjoy and think about for years to come.

The AIA recognizes the hard work strength it took to get here, as well as the sacrifices made along the way. The membership continues to grow, opening more avenues for participation. And for that, we say thank you. The student-athletes, administrators, coaches and families have all earned our gratitude. You are what drives us.

While attending this championship, we hope that it is an enjoyable experience for all. The lessons learned regarding sportsmanship and fair play are elevated here. Athletics are an extension of the classroom, which is why we accentuate the “student” in student-athlete. State championships are just a springboard to the success these student-athletes will achieve when the competition is over. In the process of deriving enjoyment from participation in athletics, our student-athletes are learning lifelong skills that will help them develop into healthy adults and productive citizens. National research continues to validate that students involved in extracurricular activities attend more days of school, perform better in the classroom and have less behavioral issues. This also includes lower dropout, alcohol and drug abuse rates as compared to those who do not participate. The benefits of participation are extensive.

Since the AIA’s inception in 1913, the association vigorously defends and promotes the positive developments of athletics, creates a culture that fosters self-governance and ethical behavior, and teaches, enforces, advocates and models the principles of the Arizona Accord and “Pursuing Victory With Honor.” Today, over 130,000 student-athletes statewide benefit from the leadership of our Board, administrators and hard-working coaches on an annual basis as we are “building character now ... for the future.”

As you enjoy all the championship contests, please show respect to those around you. Displays of good sportsmanship will place you in high regard along with your school and your community, and remind us all that, sports are meant to be fun and enjoyed by not only those participating, but those in attendance. The AIA hopes this championship, as well as any others you may attend, achieves the level of excellence our student-athletes deserve. Remember that these are “our students, our teams ... our future.”

AIA Executive Director

3A Boys Soccer: Coronado Ready to Deliver More Good News

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

Nick Barker is managing two teams as the postseason looms.

His team at home is very close to adding another member. Barker and his wife, Danni, are expecting their first baby any day.

His team at school, Coronado, is an annual 3A Conference front runner. But it appears that Barker the coach and Barker the soon to be dad has it all under control — for now.

A newborn tends to change all the best laid plans. The Barkers are awaiting a boy while Barker's boys at Coronado are aiming to bring home a different bundle of joy — a championship trophy.

It's a hectic time for the coach, but the teams he has in place are capable of making sure it all goes well. Defending state champ Coronado prepared to be without its coach just before the playoffs. At times, Barker's assistants took over during the season.

There's talent on the field but also on the sidelines with assistants Paul Barker, Dan Murphy, and Chuck Schwartzmann. Paul is Barker's brother and served as Valley Christian's captain during its 2007-08 state title run.

"I couldn't have asked for a better crew of assistant coaches who are ready to go," Barker said.

The senior leadership is also in place to help guide defending champ Coronado, which is chasing its fourth crown since 2014.

One of those seven seniors is Yohan Palafox, who is following the championship footsteps of his brothers, Omar and Ramon. Palafox served as one of Coronado's ball boys during Omar's 2014 and Ramon's 2017 title seasons.

"Yohan is humble," said Barker of his midfield captain. "He puts his team first. He's always positive. When there's a bad performance, he's on a group message thread staying positive. I wish I could clone him. I think the world of him."

There's only one Gabriel Gonzalez, and opposing teams are likely glad that's the case.

The very quick and skilled Gonzalez, another of Coronado's senior leaders, is a threat to score every time he touches the ball. Last year's Conference Player of the Year scored 54 goals.

With teams having two or sometimes three defenders monitoring him, Gonzalez's goal production (24 this season) is down. But his presence is allowing teammates to get free, and Gonzalez (12 assists) is finding them.

Coronado (89 goals in 15 matches) loves to attack and does so rapidly. Even its defenders are sometimes leading the attack. Senior left back Ezequiel Peralta has nine assists.

But with Coronado constantly pushing forward, it has left them susceptible, at times, to counterattacks. It has given up 26 goals this season, including four to Veritas Prep.

Coronado's (12-2-1) two losses this season came to 5A Carl Hayden and 4A Arcadia.

"We are a team that's susceptible to losing games to put it simply," Barker said. "They are not invincible and teams have the ability to have us down. We understand that going into the playoffs. Those games allowed us to see the cracks."

But injuries and late season mental fatigue also played a role in those losses.

Coronado expects to be at full strength when the playoffs begin, and despite the stumbles, opponents know that the state championship road still goes through Coronado.

"We choose to block out the noise," Barker said. "That doesn't mean there isn't any pressure, but the pressure we feel are the expectations we put on ourselves."

3A PLAYOFF NOTES

No. 3 seed ALA Gilbert North (12-2). The program dedicated the rest of its season to teammate Bohdie Larson after losing him in a car accident. The program responded with its first AIA playoff appearance. "I believe that the number one reason why we have been successful is that the boys, as a team, truly love each other," coach Michael Gonzalez said. "They are best friends on and off the pitch and they are the true meaning of a team." The team's leaders are senior midfielder Isaac Chavez, junior midfielder/forward Aiden Gonzalez (22 goals), and junior goalkeeper Jona Medina. "Isaac has a ton of playing experience at a high level," Gonzalez said. "He leads with his voice on the field and his demand of our players playing at their highest level. Aiden leads by example. He always works as hard in training as he does in games and he doesn't let down. Jona leads by his voice, constantly organizing his back line and by playing through his feet." Justin Provenzano has scored 14 goals.

No. 5 Veritas Prep (12-3). The team is led by three seniors, four-year captains forward Jason Nunez, goalkeeper Ben Power and Marshall Briggs. Six players on the team have each at least five goals. "Our team gained valuable experience, reaching last year's semi-finals in the state tournament, which has helped us play with more confidence, even when we are trailing in games," coach Richard Cardenas said. "We also play more as a team this year, with more players contributing on offense and defense." This will be the program's third ever playoff appearance. "Team chemistry is a big part of the Falcon program," the coach said. "We do not have a JV or freshman team, so our upperclassmen take the freshmen under their wings and treat them as valued teammates. This creates a positive environment in which everyone feels valued and happy, regardless of their role on game days."

No. 7 ALA Queen Creek (9-4). Seniors Josue Roque and Danny Dunn are the team's leaders. "Josue has been a four year starter for the school and has earned the respect of his teammates as a playmaker," coach Ed Alameda said. "As the attacking mid, he has a great sense of when to strike and when to deliver high quality passes. He is one of the team leaders in scoring and finds ways to make plays which keep the energy level up. Danny is one of our center backs and directs the midfield and back line. He has a high soccer IQ and embraces his role as team captain. Danny's technical skills and ability to read and understand the game makes him a great leader and respected voice in the backfield." ALA Queen Creek has scored 45 goals and allowed 10 since a coaching change at the end of last season. "What makes this even more special is the distribution of scoring," Alameda said. "There have been several matches with five or more different players scoring goals. Normally, high scoring players like Josue, Trey Harvan and Tagang Bawa would rack up multiple goals, however, under the new system they are expected to help build up the rest of team with unselfish play." ... No. 8 Thatcher (13-5-1). The team is led by its three senior captains, forward Grant Richardson, defender Jaeden Carpenter and midfielder Aaon Hatch as well as goalkeeper Brandon Udall. "Our team's success has been due to great team chemistry and a common goal of success as a team," coach Isaac Rogers said. "Our goals and assists this season have come from multiple players on our roster." With the exception of one year, Thatcher has made the playoffs consistently for the last seven years. ... No. 2 Phoenix Country Day (12-0). Team has outscored opponents 79-3. ... No. 6 Benjamin Franklin (10-2-2). Team has outscored opponents 53-18. Senior Jacob Aiello leads the team with 16 goals and seven assists. ... No. 10 Gilbert Christian (12-4-2). Sophomore Jake Dickinson leads the team with 10 goals and five assists. ... No. 11 Odyssey Institute (11-4-2). The program has outscored 67-19 opponents. Thomas Samois has scored 23 goals and Thaddious Thurman 15 with nine assists. ... No. 12 Valley Christian (7-5-1). The program has won 17 matches in the past two season after winning only two games three years ago. ... No. 13 Arizona College Prep (6-7-1). Team has scored 42 goals, with six players each scoring at least four goals. Seniors Nathan France and Kazushi Iwamoto have scored 16 combined goals. ... No. 14 Yuma Catholic (12-5-1). Team has outscored opponents 84-42. Senior Anthony Bazua has scored 22 goals. ... No. 15 ALA Ironwood (8-5). Team has outscored opponents 45-20. Three players have at least seven assists, led by Eloy Solis' with nine. ... No. 16 Catalina (9-7-1). Team has scored 42 goals, led by Jilberto Velasquez's nine goals.

3A Girls Soccer: ALA Queen Creek's Bond Building Something Special

By Jose Garcia
azpreps365.com

Josh DeLano didn't grow up playing soccer.

It wasn't until he was stationed in soccer-crazy South America with the U.S. Navy that the sport piqued his interest. After serving admirably for 10 years, soccer was in DeLano's DNA.

His team this season, American Leadership Academy Queen Creek, also found a special place in his heart, and it's not just because it earned its first ever No. 1 seed in the 3A Conference state tournament.

"They are the most down to earth, kind-hearted, high-spirited, tough-minded group of girls I've ever coached," the fifth-year coach said. "I am fortunate to coach them."

Last year served as ALA Queen Creek's soccer breakout season.

This season's team can take it to a whole new level.

Queen Creek lost in the first round last year at state as the 7th seed. If it defeats Tempe Prep in its first round home game on Feb. 11, it'll mark ALA Queen Creek's first ever postseason victory.

The team is capable of much more, though. It proved it already, finishing as the only undefeated 3A team and allowing just six goals in the 2019-20 regular season.

On offense, a foreign exchange student, senior Elise Angelsen of Norway, made herself at home, scoring a team-high 31 goals so far for ALA Queen Creek. The team also boasts two very strong captains, senior forward/midfielder Jessie Watson (19 goals, team-high 14 assists) and senior goalkeeper Naomi Gilmore.

Gilmore helped her team's somewhat new back line come along during the season. In the middle, junior Beige Garza leads her team's up-tempo attack.

The field is filled with key players for 12-0 ALA Queen Creek, poised to help their team make a postseason run. But DeLano knows that it won't be easy.

Gilbert Christian, which dropped a 2-1 decision early in the season to ALA Queen Creek, and defending champ Northwest Christian also are considered state title contenders.

"I would like to say that we are an up and coming team and a contender," DeLano said. "But what I really want to say is that this was a team that literally built itself. I'm just a guy who says that is what you have to do. This is their team."

3A TOURNEY TEAM NOTES

No. 2 Northwest Christian (14-1-1). "We have a deep bench and can substitute without losing talent on field," veteran coach Jeff Penzone said. "We have a tenacious group that plays hungry and can wear teams down. We also have great camaraderie and support of one another and an excellent coaching staff that pours into our girls' play and their lives." During Penzone's tenure, his program has reached the playoffs the past six years and is the defending 3A champ. The entire team has volunteered at the CCV Tournament of the Stars and many serve in their churches. "Junior midfield Whitney Wilson is our on field leader, who is the motor for our play in many ways," Penzone said. "She plays great on both sides of the ball and will make an impact for us. Senior defender Belle Ress is a staunch marking back who can lock down many situations with her tenacity and makes runs out of back on occasion and is great in the air. Sophomore Belle Floyd is a quiet leader who shows by example that grit and determination are key in being successful. She's is our leading scorer."

No. 3 Gilbert Christian (13-1). Team is led by senior forward Hannah Burke, the reigning 3A Conference Player of the Year. She is one of the state leaders in goals (34) and points. Sophomore center midfielder Emily Collard, the team's "point guard," led the state in assists last year and is doing so again this season. Speedster Landyn Lovelady plays basketball as well and totaled 15 goals and 21 assists in 11 games. Junior goalkeeper Emma Borgman is aggressive and is not shy about coming out of the box, her coach said. Gilbert Christian lost in penalty kicks during last year's state quarterfinals. Its only other loss in the past two years came to No. 1 ALA Queen Creek this season. "We have a dominant defense and explosive offense with the best defender and best forward in the state," coach Jay Feely said.

No. 4 Arizona College Prep (11-3-1). The team's weighted GPA is 4.34. The squad reached two tournament finals during the winter break and won the Chandler Prep Winter Classic. The will be the second appearance in the postseason for the program. "The team has been successful this season because of the team environment that we have been able to cultivate not only within the varsity team but with the whole program," coach Hector Rivera said. "Everyone supports each other and pushes each other every day to be the best footballers and people they can be." Hailey Starks had 61 points (24 goals, 13 assists). Goalkeeper Allison Gruwell has a .560 goals allowed per match average. Senior midfielder Megan McKenna and senior midfielder Emiko Matsumoto are also team leaders. "They are all compassionate, hard working and committed leaders that make everyone feel welcomed and valued," Rivera said. "They also possess individual traits which complement each other's."

No. 9 seed Sahuarita (15-3-1). The team's leaders are captains Alexia Irigoyen, Kambria Cash and Mari Acosta. "They lead by example, by their dedication, and by their love of the game," coach Jim Rawlings said. "Our team has come together, played with intensity and purpose, and jelled at the right times. After a 3-year hiatus, this will be the second year in a row in the playoffs."
